

The Role of Airborne and Satellite Imagery in Disaster Response “Lessons Learned” Follow-On Working Session

May 2, 2006

Hilton Hotel, Room N-11

Reno, Nevada

Agenda

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 8:00-8:30 a.m. | Sign-in and Introductions |
| 8:30-9:15 a.m. | Review of January Workshop and Overview of the Day’s Events and Objectives (Kari Craun, ASPRS President-elect) |
| 9:15-10:00 a.m. | NGA Lessons Learned Presentation (NGA did not present at the January workshop and has indicated a desire to make a formal presentation at this session) (Peter Paquette) |
| 10:00-11:30 a.m. | Presentation by panel of private sector imagery providers on “lessons learned” and recommendations; Confirmed panelists include: 3001 EarthData International Sanborn |
| 11:30-12:30 p.m. | Lunch |
| 12:30-2:00 p.m. | Working break-out sessions to refine recommendations for future efficiencies: I) Technical requirements for imagery used in disaster response and recovery; II) Logistics and coordination of the acquisition and distribution of imagery during and after a disaster |
| 2:00 – 2:15 p.m. | Break |
| 2:15-4:00 p.m. | Break-out sessions report and discuss recommendations |
| 4:00-4:15 p.m. | Wrap-up with next steps summary |